Sample Formula

Simple Moisturizing Face and body wash.

S.L N. O	Raw material Name	Purpose	Percentage
1.	Distilled water	Diluent	63.449
2.	Sodium lauryl sulfo acetate (powder)	Natural Anionic surfactant	1.500
3.	Sodium Phytate	Natural Chelating agent	0.100
4.	Coco glucoside (50%)	Natural nonionic surfactant	12.00
5.	Glycerin	Humectant Moisturizing agent	2.000
6.	Color Green (Tartrazine supra+ brilliant blue)	Colorant	0.001
7.	Fragrance oil	Fragrance	0.300
8.	Geogard 221	Natural Preservative	0.500
9.	Coco amido propyl betaine (35%)	Natural amphoteric surfactant / Thickner	20.00
10.	Citric Acid	pH adjuster	0.150

1. Take mentioned quantity of Sodium lauryl sulfo acetate (powder) in a beaker then add 10 percentage of distilled water to it. Make it like a paste Then add remining quantity of water and mix well.
(If you add full amount of water directly it will make lumps. Inorder to avoid lumps add water portion by portion and dissolve the Sodium lauryl sulfo acetate (powder) completely.)
2. Add sodium phytate and mix well.
3. Add coco glucoside and mix well.
4. Now add Glycerin and mix well.
5. Add Coco glucoside and mix well.
6. During the addition of color, there may be a chance of turbidity or a color shift in appearance. This is due to Coco glucoside, which can increase the pH to around 10. This pH change may cause some color changes in the products when the color is added. However, after adjusting the pH, the color will return to its original condition.

7. Add fragrance oil and mix well.
8. Add geogard 221 and mix well.
9. Add coco amido propyl betaine slowly and mix well, mix well until your face and body wash become thick. Coco amido propyl betaine will increase the thickness (due to the micelle close packing property with anionic surfactant (sodium lauryl sulfo acetate).)
10. Then check the pH, it will be around 10, now add citric acid and mix well. And adjust the pH to 5 to 5.5. (our skin pH is lies in this condition).
11. If your pH drops down too much like below 4 or something add Caustic soda flakes or lye (NaOH) and adjust back to 5 to 5.5.
12. Your Face and body wash is ready.
13. Note: in this formulation we used glycerin as moisturizing agent adding too much glycerin will impact the foam of the body wash. So do not add more than 2%. If you want to add more than 2 percentage, you have to increase the surfactant qty too otherwise foam will become low.
14. Now transfer your products into a sterilized container.

Sodium lauryl sulfoacetate (SLSA) is a gentle surfactant derived from coconut oil. It's often used in personal care products such as shampoos, bath bombs, and facial cleansers to create a luxurious foam.

CAPB has mild properties, These properties make CAPB a highly preferred option for sensitive skin, as it tends not to cause irritation or discomfort.

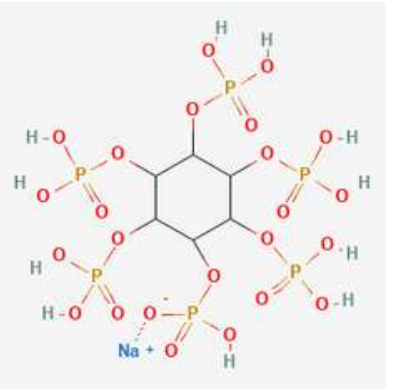

coco glucoside is a vegetable-based non-ionic surfactant obtained from renewable raw materials such as coconut oil and glucose. An extremely mild cleansing agent with anti-irritant properties, very gentle to the skin and mucus membranes.

Down

Citric acid naturally occurs in citrus fruits. Synthetic versions are produced from a type of mold and are often used as pH adjustment agent. Citric acid is found naturally in citrus fruits, especially lemons and limes. It's what gives them their tart, sour taste.

Sodium phytate
